

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Jakub Babuška – The indigenous subject in law: At the intersection of the Cartesian subjectivity and the Rule	7
Dobrochna Bach-Golecka – The evolution of papal social thought on indigenous peoples	21
Rodrigo Cespedes – Drug possession, Chilean indigenous peoples, and cultural defences	31
Daria Ciak – No place to call home. Indigenous peoples and the problem of homelessness	41
Steven L. Cooper – Indigenous class proceedings in Canada. An examination of the convergence of Indigenous rights and class actions in the Canadian common law system	51
Dominic Npoanlari Dagbanja – A shield or a sword? Migration law and policy and modern slavery in Australia	68
Natalia Deptala – The concept of delinquency in Mesoamerica: Focus on the Aztecs and the Maya	99
Magdalena Krysińska-Kaluźna – Mantalil , Mauri and Djang : Law and justice in the indigenous worlds	116
Jan Kunicki – Legacy of the conflict between European and indigenous African legal constructs of land tenure in contemporary Zimbabwe	129
Jacek Maria Kurczewski – Dilemmas of re-nativization of indigenous law	146
Karolina Mendecka – The right to mother tongue education for indigenous peoples: An overview of international and regional standards	208
Jerzy Menkes, Magdalena Suska – The issue of indigenous peoples at the United Nations: Selected problems	232
Aleksander Posern-Zieliński – New indigenous elite and the formation of ethnonationalism: The case of the Andean countries	253
Karolina Prażmowska-Marcinkowska – Climate change mitigation and adaptation: With or against indigenous peoples?	286
Iwona Ryniak-Olszanka – The rights of indigenous peoples in Indonesia in the context of ‘responsibility to protect’	301
Jakub Sewerynik – Freedom of religion in the European public space. Remarks based on the latest case law of selected international and national courts concerning religious symbols	318
Dominik Świątkowski – Corsican separatism in the face of socio-legal challenges. Analysis of the problem on the basis of French, international and European law	334
Chris Thornhill – Indigenous rights as a field of sociological research	374

Wojciech Zaluski – How to conceptualize ‘crimes beyond words’? Simone Weil’s perspective	405
Krzysztof Ząbecki – Present-day policies concerning Indigenous languages in the Americas: A geographical approach	419