

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editors' Foreword
Michał Jabłoński, Krzysztof Koźmiński – Good law-making in Poland: Problems and challenges	7
Barbara Błaszczak – The theory of welfare economics and tax regulations: An empirical example of Pigouvian taxes	23
Agata Breczko – Structural depth in reforms induced by IMF programs: Insights from the Fund's major debtors	36
Zuzanna Buszman – Beyond the courtroom: The evolution of rights-based climate litigation from Urgenda to Held and its policy impact	56
Robert Grzeszczak, Kamil Kapica – 'Better Regulation Programme' in the European Union: Pros and cons	77
Miłosz Kłosowiak – Powers of the National Revenue Administration with regard to temporary attachment of movable property: Legislative aspects	95
Oktawian Kuc – Obligation to comply with ICJ decisions: The Jurisdictional Immunities saga within the Italian legal order	109
Aleksander Leszczyński, Michał Macidłowski – On the standards of law-making in criminal law: A Polish example	132
Joachim Osiński, Izabela Zawiślińska – The Storting legislative process: Pragmatism of solutions and the quality of law	152
Mateusz Pękala – Ex-post analysis as an integral part of the legislative decision-making process	176
Piotr Rączka, Seweryn Sasín – Automation of administrative acts: An example of the German Administrative Procedure Act	200
Maciej Ślifirczyk – Consequences of the impossibility of fulfilling tax obligations	220
Dawid Ziółkowski – Importance of the principle of decent legislation for Polish administrative law	242